

Declaration of honour for prison visitors regarding the prevention and hygienic measures during the corona crisis (Covid-19)

I, the undersigned, (name and surname) hereby declare on my honour and regarding my visit to the inmate (name and surname)
in the prison of (place)

- to have read and understood the specific measures regarding the visiting procedures and regulations and will comply with the following:
 - wash and disinfect my hands upon entering and leaving the prison and visiting areas
 - wear a personal face mask
 - respect the mandatory physical distance
 - not have physical contact with the inmate I am visiting nor with others in the prison
exception: physical contact between adults and children during children's visits
 - not hand any object directly to the inmate
 - follow the instructions given by the prison staff

- to be aware of the infection hazard both for myself and for the people in my surroundings
- to not have felt any symptoms of Covid-19 over the past 14 days
- to inform the prison if I or the minor(s) accompanying me fall ill within the 2 days after the prison visit
- to not have returned from a country or a region in a foreign country classified as a red area over the past 14 days nor to live in a foreign red area
- to have correctly and honestly completed this declaration as well the joint document (both for myself as, if relevant, for the minor(s) accompanying me during this visit).

I am aware that not complying with the regulations as stated above will lead to a visiting ban and to a refusal of access to the prison.
